Special Internship Drive for SC/ST Candidates Pursuing Any Undergraduate and Post Graduate Courses

(BRACE, IASST Guwahati)

The Bhim Rao Ambedkar Centre for Community Empowerment (BRACE) at IASST, is dedicated to advancing societal well-being through targeted initiatives in three primary areas—Science Awareness and Training, Science & Technology Interventions, and Rural Entrepreneurship Development—specifically designed for underprivileged groups, with a focus on Scheduled Tribe (ST) and Scheduled Caste (SC) communities. The centre aspires to become a national and international center of excellence in cutting edge physical and life sciences research, cultivating scientifically advanced human resources to further societal development. BRACE is committed to leveraging the North-East region's natural resources and developing technologies to support sustainable socio-economic progress. Its objectives include raising regional science and technology awareness through community outreach and inspiring young talent to pursue careers in scientific research.
